

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. We are no longer bothered with unwanted telephone solicitors and enjoy receiving telephone calls without worrying that it's another telemarketer.